reference to remember you for it. The reason of my making the remark was because information was brought me by some that such was the fact.

Hon. GEORGE G. DUNN

THE GRAND DIVISION, S. OF T., now in session in this city, elected its officers yesterday for the next year, as follows:

P. S. Sage, of Allentown, G. W. P. R. T. Brown, Crawfordsville, G. W. A. Charles Woodward, Indianapolis, G. Sec. James Hall, Indianapolis, G. T. John T. Wallace, Columbus, G. C. Clement E. Babb, Indianapolis, G. Chap.

FOREIGN POLITICS AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS, especially on our own continent, have never looked so equally, as they do just now.

WE are told by Senators Douglas, Soule, Weller, and by the Democratic press generally, that the policy of Mr. Fillmore, under which we have been flourishing as people never flourished before, is a tame, timid, cowardly policy.
